

Bruce Stidham, PCAC

Bruce Stidham was first elected Grayson County Tax Assessor-Collector in 2012, after a successful real estate career, and begins his 3rd term in January. First elected as a director to the TACA board in 2017, he is currently serving as Vice President Internal. Bruce is active in the association and is a member of several committees, including Legislative, DMV, By-laws and serves as Chairman of the Education Committee.

He graduated from Harding University in Searcy, Arkansas, with a BA in Political Science. He and Karen, his wife of 38 years, have two grown sons and four grandchildren. They live outside Whitewright, on land originally surveyed by her great-great- great grandfather Andy Thomas, who came to Texas in 1836 with Davy Crockett. They traded rifles while camped near Honey Grove. Andy Thomas remained in North Texas while Crockett went south to San Antonio. The family still owns the Crockett rifle which is on display in the Long Barracks at the Alamo.
